STUDENT MINISTRY NEW MEXICO MISSION TRIP

JUNE
18 - 25

The GBF Student Ministry recently went on its annual mission trip to Pine Hill Church on the Navajo Indian Reservation in northwest New Mexico. The theme verse for this year's trip was Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek." We should always strive to be unashamed of the gospel of Jesus Christ. This past week, our students lived this out. They boldly taught and shared the gospel by putting on a Vacation Bible School at Pine Hill Church for the local Navajo kids. I witnessed our students boldly proclaim the gospel of Jesus, unconditionally love the Navajo children, and have a lot of fun doing so.

Over a five day period, we broke the gospel down into four parts: the holiness of God, the sinfulness of man, the sacrifice of Christ, and the right response. Our students stepped completely outside of their comfort zone and embraced all new challenges. Whether they were called upon to teach that day or to lead rec and snack out in the hot sun, our students worked their tail off each and every day to make sure that every Navajo child left knowing that they were loved by God and by us. From the moment the first kid jumped out of the van to the moment the last kid loaded up in the van to leave for the day, our students were totally engaged. No child was made to feel like an outcast. Every child was able to walk away from VBS knowing that someone else cares for the well-being of their soul. Not because they have some alternative motive, but because they genuinely love them.

We established 3 pillars to determine how we facilitate VBS. First and foremost, we were to be gospel-centered. If we spend the entire week on the reservation, but we never speak the truth, we miss the mark. Second, we were to be relational. Information best travels across bridges of trust. We set out to build relationships in the name of Jesus. Lastly, we were going to have fun. Fun is a universal language that everyone understands and everyone enjoys. If we can laugh with one another, we can learn from one another. Our students executed this to perfection. We have an amazing group of students and I was truly blessed to be able to serve with them on the NM Mission Trip of 2016. We did it for the turn-up. It was lit.

In Christ,

Price Ferrell

Meet our new children's ministry director: Alicia Gage

The Gage Family (Left to Right): Mitchell, Alicia, Brooks, Titus, John and Knox.

Our new children's ministry director might be new to GBF, but she is certainly not new to church leadership, especially when it involves children and family.

Alicia Gage and her husband, John, joined the church in March, along with their four boys: Brooks -10, Mitchell - 9, Knox—6, and Titus - 2 ½.

In their previous church, Alicia was involved in teaching children's church, the weekly worship team, and summer Vacation Bible Camp, while she and John hosted a community group.

Alicia graduated from Decatur High School and earned a Bachelor's degree in Kinesiology from Hardin- Simmons University. She is also a certified teacher and John works for Independent Bank in Prosper.

The Gages are excited to be a part of the growing family at GBF. They enjoy fishing, being outdoors and participating in sports events.

Alicia will officially begin her duties on July 17. A few of her goals for the children's program include: to provide a safe, secure, loving environment; for children to know the truth through catechisms and scripture; for each child to know that God is real and seek a personal relationship with Him; to equip, encourage, and appreciate the volunteers; and to equip parents to be the primary spiritual leader of their child.

What is your favorite thing about GBF?

John: The love that people in the church have for Jesus.

Alicia: The community and that the gospel is preached every Sunday.

Brooks: Meeting new friends

Mitchell: Going to church with family.

Knox: Doing the bible crafts

Titus: Jesus

Welcome, Gage family and thank you for serving the Lord at GBF!

Wishing you a safe and happy

Independence Day!

What I Said To A Friend Reading a Joel Osteen Book

For some, when I say that I am not a supporter of Joel Osteen's teaching you probably think, "DUH! He's a prosperity preacher!" For others you might think "REALLY!?! He has such a positive message. Why would you NOT support that?!?!"

About a year ago a friend of mine/member of my church family posted on Twitter that she was currently reading one of Mr. Osteen's books. I messaged her about it and brought some things to her attention. I thought I would share my message to her with you all. My intention is not to slander Mr. Osteen, but rather to raise what I feel like are some legitimate concerns about his teaching. Below is exactly what I sent to her via text message and I did ask her permission before posting.

Hey girl. Pls don't think I'm the Twitter police when I share this w/you :-) And pls know that I you are free to read whatever you want, & I respect that...but I saw your post about Joel Osteen. First of all, props to you! I'm so glad to see you making efforts to feed your soul, few girls your age are doing that w/their time....but to say that I have reservations about Joel would be an understatement :-/ To be fair, I was "warned" about Joel & other "prosperity preachers" in ministry training, so I'm definitely hypersensitive to them, but as your pastor and friend I wanted to give you a chance to make a decision on whether or not his (Joel's) teaching is in line w/biblical Christianity. Here's a link to a post that brings up some of the same concerns I have <http://themattwalshblog.com/2014/09/04/joel-osteen-wife-heretics-thats-america-loves/> and here's a short YouTube vid about the prosperity gospel and its dangers ESPECIALLY in 3rd world countries as they don't have the the $$ & resources that we have & are seen as not having enough faith or saying the right "powerful" words. http://youtu.be/G-V_91c5ojU And one more by Matt Chandler <http://youtu.be/w3oFFZQgKdc>. Pls let me know if you have questions about this & pls don't take this as me telling you what you should/shouldn't read. Just want you to be informed. Much love, Roy

My friend said that what I shared with her was helpful and that she had passed it on to others. That's my intention, to be helpful.

An opportunity to bless others...

STUDENT MINISTRY

Here's what all went down in Student Ministry during June:

- We started our summer teaching series called Stories. Proverbs 27:17 says, "Iron sharpen iron, and one man sharpens another." One of the best ways Christians can sharpen one another is through the sharing of testimonies. This summer our youth leaders will share their stories of how God has worked through them and is continuing to work through them.
- We went on the New Mexico Mission trip. The recap is on page 1 and below is a list of those who participated. Ask them about how the trip impacted their lives!
